CAPITAL CITY "HASH."

By Johnny-Get-Your-Gun.

Under the 'Simmon Tree.

That is where Taylor Hockensmith was—on the wooded hill-top, with the autumn leaves turning and the grapevine clinging to the spreading branches, when a little bird came and whispered in his ear to send some of those rich, ripe persimmons and grapes he was gathering, to the writer of the random lines. Acting on the hint, and prompted by the big, generous heart that fills his breast, a box filled with ripe wild grapes and delicious persimmons, came and bid us luxuriate—

Oh, he's no fancy fellow,
No legendary myth,
But true as gold is yellow
Is Taylor Hockensmith.

Who originated the expression, "It beats all creation and Tom Walker?" It has been in use more than 50 years.

Ben Butler, in his debate with Sunset Cox, first used the words "Shoofly, don't bother me!"

Rev. Robt. J. Breckinridge, D. D., the celebrated Presbyterian divine, was a hustling stump speaker in early life, and first made use of the phrase, "No more chance than a bobtail bull in fly time."

Jim Jewell, of Lexington, made politically historic the expression "Politics is hell."

Fitzhugh, of Texas, first used the words "Bigger man than old Grant."

Capt. Bob Collins coined the word "Syphinx," and B. L. D. Guffy introduced the word "Sap-in-paw." The first meant "too big for a monkey and too little for a man," and the last—well—ask E. L. D. and he will tell you.

The Democratic Convention that assembled on Capital Square, when Cervo Gordo Williams was a candidate for Governor, was riotous, tumultuous and noisy. Every speaker was hooted at and yelled down. Finally Col. G. W. Craddock was asked to stave the tumult. Taking the stand, he attempted to speak. The crowd cat-called, raved and shouted. Craddock stood unmoved. After making several futile attempts to be heard, he raised his voice to its highest pitch and in stentorian tones shouted, "Fellow-citizens, Hoodlums and S—of—b—s!" The quaint appeal had its effect. The crowd laughed, the noise subsided and quiet was restored. Craddock knew his audience.

Col. J. N. Crutcher, the Alcalde of the West End, was claimed to have been the only man in Frankfort whom Lewis Cass, the famous statesman, spoke to when returning from acting as pallbearer at the funeral of Henry Clay. It happened this way. As the train was passing Barstow's corner, Mr. Crutcher, then a young man, leaped on the platform and entered the car to see the people and the distinguished personage. He inadvertently left the car door open. Mr. Cass, who was in the car, abruptly said: "Please shut that door, young man!" Later, as he went up street, Crutcher claimed that he was the only man in town that Mr. Cass had spoken to. But he did not tell how and why.

The old Sand Lotters Club that gave a fish fry at Macey's Bend, and afterwards paid twenty-five dollars for half a can of oysters and a piece of coon at a restaurant on Ann street, are passing away. Mangan, Weitzel, Luscher, Frazier and Grant are among those who have crossed the divide.

In the long bottom, between the farms of Chas. O'Hara and that now owned by John T. Hockensmith, a race track was once laid out and famous races run, in which the noted horse, Gray Eagle, took part. Henry Clay was one of the many spectators.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Frankfort Testimony.

Don't take our word for it.
Don't depend on a stranger's statement.
Read Frankfort endorsement.
Read the statements of Frankfort citizens.
And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it: Mrs. Amanda Dean, of 18 Taylor Avenue, wife of J. T. Dean, boatman, says: "While I did not personally use Doan's Kidney Pills I can highly recommend them for the great relief they afforded my eldest daughter, who has always suffered more or less from a weak back ever since a child. On account of this condition it was almost impossible for her at times to lift anything. Accompanying this was a difficulty with the kidneys which was very annoying and distressing. I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them for her at J. W. Gayle's drug store. She took them as directed and they helped her in every way. Her back felt very much better and stronger and the difficulty with the kidney secretions was much improved. My youngest daughter complained a great deal of her back hurting her too. I gave her Doan's Kidney Pills and the results in her case, as well, were most satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NATURAL CURIOSITY.

Aunt Ogie Harris, a well known colored woman, brought to our office, on Saturday, a natural curiosity in the shape of a hen egg, which, at the small end, had a well-defined letter C, which stood up almost a sixteenth of an inch above the general surface. It certainly was a curiosity.

IS THE MOON INHABITED.

Science has proven that the moon has an atmosphere, which makes life in some form possible on that satellite; but not for human beings, who have a hard enough time on this earth of ours, especially those who don't know that Electric Bitters cure Headache, Biliousness, Malaria, Chills and Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Rapid Liver, Kidney complaints, General Debility and Female weaknesses. Unequaled as a general Tonic and Appetizer for weak persons and especially for the aged. It induces sound sleep. Fully guaranteed by all druggists. Price only 50c.

LETTER FROM CUBA.

United States Ship Louisiana, Havana, Cuba, Sept. 30, 1906. Editor Roundabout:

As I have a little leisure time to-day, I will proceed to write you and explain, to the best of my ability, the exact situation in Cuba at present. Perhaps you can use it in your paper, if so I will be glad.

At the last election there was a claim of fraud almost similar to the Goebel affair, and discontent, growing more and more pronounced, was at last brought to a climax by the President ordering the arrest of Senators of the Moderate party. Immediately following their imprisonment, there was an uprising or rebellion which, growing more and more serious, at last was in possession of almost all of Cuba except Havana, and had the city strongly surrounded and were about to take possession upon our arrival. Owing to the fact that it was almost impossible for the Government to raise troops notwithstanding the fact they were offering $2.50 a day for private soldiers, the largest pay of any enlisted soldier in the world. Immediately upon reaching here the Mediation Committee, appointed by President Roosevelt, called for a cessation of hostilities or a truce, and prepared to hear all reports bearing on the difficulty by both parties, also caused the temporary release of the imprisoned Senators and heard their version of the trouble. After sifting the evidence, they rendered a decision to which Liberals (or Government) refused to comply. Palma has resigned, and at present the city of Havana is occupied by American sailors and marines, and every port of Cuba has one or more American ships in harbor, and all property is guarded by soldiers. The aspect at present is very serious, and may prove a source of much expense and life to the United States. There is now a large number of the American battleships in Havana harbor and troops are being rapidly rushed to the front. There has been no loss to us so far, but four or five sailors have been shot by unknown parties in Havana.

I remain yours sincerely,
MILTON N. CULTER.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME?

The thermometer concluded that we had enough of "the good old summer time," on Wednesday last, and "fell over itself" getting down towards the bulb. When humanity opened its eyes on Thursday morning the tube registered 30 degrees. How is that for a tumble from 85 and 90?

COON HUNTING.

The officers of the English squadron prepared for their recent visit to this country by an exhaustive study of so-called American slang, that they might enjoy that "delightful American humor" over which the English have recently become so enthusiastic.

During their stay in Annapolis a coon hunt was arranged for their benefit, the officer in charge explaining to them that it was a sport highly thought of by natives of the Southern States.

As they rode along one of the Englishmen remarked: "You hunt these coons with dogs, I think?"

His host assented and the Englishmen continued: "They are found in the woods and are often caught in trees, aren't they?"

"They are," replied the American; "but how do you come to know so much about coon-hunting?"

"Oh," said the visitor, with an air of conscious pride, "I've read 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' you know, and all those articles that have come out in the papers lately, but to tell the truth, I didn't think it was allowed by the authorities, no matter what the nigger had done."—Lippincott's.

A REPEATER.

John Weaver, the reform mayer of Philadelphia, was recently congratulated by a delegation of Irgymen on the clean administration that he has given to the raker City. In the course of it reply, Mayor Weaver said:

I am glad to tell you that things with us have improved. For instance, the matter of elections. A Philadelphian, some years ago was running for a small office, and on election day he went from poll to poll, cheering his supporters on.

"As he left a certain poll a shabby individual approached and shook him by the hand.

"I trust, sir," said the candidate, that you are one of my supporters?"

"One?" chuckled the shabby individual. "Why, bless your heart, I'm seven of 'em."

DEPENDS ON THE LOCATION.

"It isn't true," argued the passenger with the skull cap, "that studying for the ministry unfits a man for a business career. Sometimes it has just the opposite effect."

"How, for instance?" asked the passenger with the flashy waistcoat.

"Well, a cousin of mine took a theological course several years ago, became a preacher, went straight into business, and made a success of it right from the start. Hadn't a cent of capital, either."

"What's his business?"

"The marrying business." Just then the engines stopped, the band on board began playing Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," and presently the boat scraped the dock at St. Joe.—Chicago Tribune.

PROFANITY ALLOWED FOR.

If there was anything the late Senator Hoar disliked more than did another it was profanity.

The story is told how much shocked the venerable Senator would be by in the inflammatory interjection of a certain politician with whom he frequently was compelled to confer. But on all such occasions he would refrain from censuring the culprit except in the mildest manner.

One day when the politician came to the Senator's committee-room on a subject of considerable importance, Mr. Hoar indicated a seat to him, and remarked:

"Now, Mr. Blank, before we enter upon a discussion of this question, we shall assume that everybody and everything is damned. Then we can talk it over amicably."

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON BY CITIZENS AT NOVEMBER ELECTION.

The following is the constitutional amendment to be voted on at the November election. As it is of great importance, and as the voters generally have not so far considered the matter, the provision is well worth careful reading:

An Act relating to amendment of section 145 of the Constitution, relating to suffrage and elections.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: "1. That upon the concurrence of three-fifths of all the members elected to each house, the years and days being taken thereon and entered in full in their respective journals, section 145 of the Constitution of Kentucky be, and it is, amended by adding a fourth paragraph to said section containing the following words, to-wit:

"4. Persons who have not, at least sixty days before the election at which they offer to vote, paid in full all State, county, municipal, district and school taxes due by them for the year previous to the one in which they offer to vote."

That section 145 of the Constitution of Kentucky relating to suffrage and elections, be amended to read as follows:

"1. Every male citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years, who has resided in the State one year and the county six months, or the precinct in which he offers to vote sixty days next preceding the election, shall be a voter in said precinct and not elsewhere, but the following persons are excepted and shall not have the right to vote.

FRANKFORT, OCT. 13, 1906.

DEATH OF MARCUS A. JONES, SR.

On Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Mr. Marcus A. Jones, Sr., died very suddenly, at his home on Ewing street, South Side, aged 65 years.

Mr. Jones came to this city when a young man from Carroll county. When first here he was in the employ of the later Mr. John Haly.

Later on, he formed a partnership in the machine business with his brothers, the firm being known as Jones Bros., and their shop was located on Broadway street. The firm only retired from business last year.

For a number of years Mr. Jones has been a great sufferer from rheumatism, and this caused his death.

He was up and about the streets, attending to business until the latter part of last week, even Saturday supervised some changes in the building formerly used as a machine shop.

He was a devoted member of the Methodist Church, and for years was a member of the choir of that Church.

Owing to ill health he had not been active in church affairs for some time.

In early manhood he was married to Miss Sarah Williams, a daughter of Mr. M. H. P. Williams, Sr., and a sister of Judge B. G. Williams.

By this union five sons (Church and Ben Jones, of Louisville; Ralph and Chester Jones, of Indianapolis; and Marcus A. Jones, Jr., of Corbett, Wyoming) and one daughter (Mrs. H. C. McKee, of this city,) were given them, who, together with his devoted wife and two brothers, survive him.

He was an upright, honest man, and was always a modest and valuable citizen.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, of the Methodist Church, on Tuesday morning, and the remains were laid away in our cemetery.

Worry

Almost Unnerved Me—Heart Pains.

Short of Breath, Faint and Languid.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

"It has been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nervine, and I am just as sound as a dollar in that organ today. For several years I had been suffering with my heart. Breathing had become short and difficult at times, sharp pains about the heart, sometimes accompanied with fluttering would make me feel faint and languid. The least excitement or mental worry would almost unnerve me. I felt that the trouble was growing worse all the time, and after trying many remedies prescribed by physicians without obtaining relief, I was induced to give your remedies a trial. I was relieved the second day, and after taking three or four bottles all symptoms were removed and have never showed signs of returning."—Rev. Geo. W. KILACOTE, Chincoteague, Va.

There are many symptoms of heart disease, which so closely resemble those of more common nervous disorders, as to frequently mislead the attending physician. Often in cases of heart trouble the stomach, kidneys, liver or lungs become affected. Again the symptoms may be those of weakened nerves, as tired feeling, sleeplessness, timidity, the patient is easily excitable and apt to worry without cause. If you have the least suspicion that your heart is weak, study your symptoms and begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic, without a day's delay.

election for the whole county of Scott (including Georgetown) upon the local option question, was heard by Judge Stout, and the following is his decision:

Scott Circuit Court.
G. H. Nunnally, &c., Plffs., vs.
Judgment.
J. J. Yates, as Judge of the Scott County Court, Deft.

This cause coming on for hearing on the motion of plaintiff made on the third day of this term of court, and the court being sufficiently advised, it was adjudged that the demurrer to plaintiff's petition is overruled; it is further adjudged that the demurrer of plaintiff to the answer of defendant is sustained.

It is now adjudged that J. J. Yates, as Judge of the Scott County Court, be and he is hereby ordered and commanded to enter an order on the order book of Scott County Court directing the sheriff of Scott county, Ky., to open a poll in each and all of the voting precincts of said county, including the voting precincts of the city of Georgetown, on the 8th day of December, 1906, to take the sense of the legal voters of Scott county, Kentucky, who are qualified to vote at elections for county officers on the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous, malt, or other intoxicating liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein, this law and prohibition to apply to druggists.

It is further adjudged that so much of plaintiff's petition asking for a special registration on the 30th day of November, 1906, is denied, it being in the discretion of the Judge of the County Court to fix the day of such special registration at a date not later than five days before the 8th day of December, 1906.

Both sides were claiming that they had won, but when this decision is read, it is seen that he grants the mandamus for the election, but does not require Judge Yates to call a special registration at any set time.

FINGER SPLIT OPEN.

Mr. Clarence Quire, an employee of the Kentucky River Mills, was so unfortunate as to have the little finger of his left hand split open to the bone, by being caught in the machinery. Surgical attention was rendered.

SPRINKLING CART BROKEN DOWN.

On Wednesday morning, as the sprinkling cart was going up Broadway by the railroad depot the left hind wheel caught between the rails of the switch and the wheel was crushed down.

AN OUTRAGE.

On Saturday afternoon, as the F. & C. passenger train, en route to Paris, was crossing the C. S. R. R. at Georgetown, two youths were passing along evidently hunting with shotguns, when one of them, deliberately drew up his gun and fired at the passing train, one of the balls striking Capt. Taylor Carter in the back of the head and bringing him to his knees.

Capt. Carter was unlocking the door of an empty coach, which was being taken to Paris for the excursion over the L. & N. on Sunday, and was alone.

As soon as Capt. W. M. Petty, conductor on the F. & C., learned of the matter (he being in another part of the train), he telegraphed back to have the rascals arrested, but, so far, they have escaped arrest.

This character of outrage is getting too prevalent and should be stopped.

We are glad to say that Capt. Carter was not seriously hurt, no thanks, however, to the young ruffians who were guilty of the outrage.

CORRECTION.

In our notice of the accidental killing of Mr. Henry M. Ledridge, we were led to make an erroneous statement, as to his being out hunting on Sunday.

The fact is, that Mr. Ledridge never would go hunting on Sunday, but was simply taking exercise, by walking over the hills, being employed closely during the week, and accidentally met the boys who were hunting. He told them that he would not go, but would return home.

We deem it but right to make this statement in justice to our young friend.

Miss Jane Todd Holmes and Maj. W. A. Luthmeier were the attendants.

The young people left for a wedding trip East, and will go to housekeeping on Ewing street when they return.

When a horse is so overworked it lies down and in other ways declares its inability to go further, you would consider it criminal to use force. Many a man of humane impulse, who would not willingly harm a kitten, is guilty of cruelty where his own stomach is concerned. COLORED WOMAN 117 YEARS OLD DIES.

Aunt Jane Mitchell, a colored woman aged 117 years, who lived alone in an upstairs room, in Battle Alley, was so unfortunate as to have her clothing catch fire, on Monday. The other inhabitants of the house did not know that she was on fire until the smoke came pouring out of the window of her room. When they went there, they found the old woman very badly burned. She lingered until 4 o'clock on Thursday morning, when she passed away.

The old woman was the widow of Caleb Mitchell, who died several years ago. The Louisville Times and State Journal both printed pictures of the man and stated that he lived here, when in fact he had been dead several years.

These old people were formerly slaves of Col. W. E. Hunt, of Greenville, Miss., and the family substantiate the fact that they were each over 100 years of age, and that they had been faithful servants in the Hunt family up to the taking effect of the emancipation proclamation. Aunt Jane was considerably older than her husband.

DELIGHTFUL LUNCH.

The Philathea Class of Young Ladies of the First Baptist Church served a delightful lunch in the old Chapel, in the rear of the church, on Thursday night. It was a delightful affair, all the delicacies of the season being served by the thirty-five handsome young ladies, who are members of the class.

There was quite a good crowd who took their supper with these dainty girls, and we are glad to say that a handsome sum was realized for the building fund of the church.

The ball game Sunday between the local team and the Bridwell Club, of Louisville, will be the best of the season. The Bridwells have a strong team. The battery for the local team will be Wright and Land.

SMALL FIRE.

The alarm of fire yesterday morning was occasioned by the burning of a feather bed in a house at the north end of St. Clair street. The bed was thrown out the window and the damage to the building amounted to but little.

AN ORIENTAL'S SUGGESTION.

"Why," said the traveller, do you attach so much attention to the dragons? Don't you know there is no such creature?"

"My dear sir," answered Mr. Li Lo, the eminent Chinese philosopher, "I often find the Goddess of Liberty depicted on public emblems. Yet I have found it impossible to meet the lady personally."—Washington Star.

Preventives, as the name implies, prevent all Colds and Grippe when taken at the sneeze stage.

Preventives are toothsome candy tablets. Preventives dissipate all colds quickly and taken early, when you first feel that a cold is coming, they check and prevent them. Preventives are thoroughly safe for children, and as effectual for adults. Sold and recommended in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes by all dealers.

HANDED DOWN.

The cheerful idiot smiled at the landlady.

"Did I understand you to say, madam, that your grandfather was one of the early surveyors who laid out this noble city?"

"Yes, indeed," the good lady replied. "My grandfather drove his stakes over all this section."

"It was thoughtful of him," said the idiot as he saved desperately at his bit of porthouse, it was very thoughtful of him to want to hand down the stakes."

And he stopped trying to cut his particular steak and sank back exhausted.—Cleveland Plain-Dealer.

A TASTE FOR DOGS.

Mark Twain, apropos of Decoration Day, talked of war and of the hardships and privations of sieges.

"A Frenchman," he said, "called one day on a lady who had two dogs. They were ugly little brutes, and, when they came near him, the man pushed them out of the way with his foot."

"I perceive, sir," said the lady, coldly, "that you are not very fond of dogs."

The man started in surprise.

"I not fond of dogs?" he exclaimed. "Why, madam, I ate more than twenty of them during the siege of Paris!"

DEATHS.

BRYANT—In this county, near Choateville, an infant son of Mr. Rufus Bryant, of meningitis.

HENDRICK—At the home of his sister-in-law, at The Terraces, on Thursday evening, Mr. Virginius Hendrick, aged about 75 years, from the infirmities of age.

Mr. Hendrick had been living here with his brother, the late Rev. John R. Hendrick, for many years. Owing to ill-health he had been a recluse for several years. He was a Virginian by birth.

He leaves one brother and one sister surviving him.

KYLE—In this city, on Thursday night, Mr. Charles Kyle, aged 30 years, of appendicitis.

Mr. Kyle was a jeweler by profession and came to this city about a year ago, from Mansfield, Ohio, to accept a position at Selber's jewelry establishment.

He was an industrious and upright young man, jolly and full of fun. He had only been sick a week, but, owing to some heart trouble, the physicians, Drs. Ely, Reynolds and Barr, were unable to undertake an operation, and other remedies proved ineffectual.

He was a member of the Masonic fraternity in Ohio, and his brethren of that order attended to him while confined to his bed and looked after the remains.

HUMAN BLOOD MARKS.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well-known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

LEFT LEG BROKEN.

By reason of his team running away, when near the Hoge Feed and Coal Co.'s office, out Broadway street, on Wednesday, Mr. Ben F. Morrison was thrown out and his left leg was broken below the knee and the knee dislocated.

Drs. Williams and Mastin reduced the fracture and put the knee in place, and Mr. Morrison is doing as well as could be expected.

The accident was a very unfortunate one, as Mr. Morrison has a big lot of work on hand.

SOMETHING NEW.

Keep the bowels open when you have a cold and use a good remedy to allay the inflammation of the mucous membranes. The best is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It contains no opiates, moves the bowels, drives out the cold. It is not now necessary to take a purgative followed by something to relieve inflammation and stop the tickling and coughing. These qualities are now combined for the first time in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

EARLY MORNING BLAZE.

An alarm, at 1 o'clock, yesterday morning, called the fire boys to the store of Mr. R. B. Jilison, on the corner of St. Clair and Broadway, where a carelessly dropped match had set fire to a lot of damage in the rear of the store. But for the timely alarm, the fire would, doubtless, have been a serious one. It was quickly extinguished and no damage was done to the building.

DREW FOR PLACES ON BALLOT.

The various candidates for the Democratic nomination for position on the ballot drew for places at Louisville, on Thursday. In the Senatorial race, Gov. J. C. W. Beckham won first place. race for Attorney General, Hon. John K. Hendrick won. In the Commissioner of Agriculture race, Hon. R. C. Crenshaw won.
In the rest of the places there was only one candidate.

The first place gives a very decided advantage to the lucky men.

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING HIS MEALS OUT."
Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destriving process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver bulks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.
A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them all day, inviting some serious illness.
In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this constant remedy.
Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

CAPT. THOS. BRAUNER ANSWERS LAST CALL.

After undergoing a series of accidents that would have crushed the spirit of any ordinary man, Capt. Thomas Brauner, of this city, meets with the final accident, which ends his career.

It seems that Capt. Brauner had some contracts for building of brick houses at Greensburg, Green county. On Thursday he was traveling in a buggy when the fatal summons came and he fell to his death.

Capt. Brauner was upwards of 70 years of age, and had met with a number of serious accidents. He served in the Confederate army and came out unscathed. Later, he was following his avocation of contractor and bricklayer in Arkansas, when he had a fall from a building and was badly hurt, being confined to his bed for a long time. Recovering he came back to his Kentucky home, and undertook the contract for building the courthouse at Richmond. Again his bad luck followed, and he fell from a scaffold, and was disabled for several months. After he recovered, he came home and was passing in front of our office, slipped on the icy pavement and broke his hip. From that time he was permanently crippled, although he never gave up attending to business and undertook contracts for buildings in various parts of the State.

He leaves two sisters (Mrs. Agnes Franklin and Mrs. Lavinia Wiard), two brothers (H. K. and James G. Brauner) and a large number of nephews and nieces to mourn his death.

He was a warm-hearted, brave man, whom no danger could appall and no misfortune subdue. The remains will be brought here today and the funeral services will be conducted from the cemetery chapel by Rev. J. O. A. Vaughn, of the Methodist Church.

DRAMATIC NEWS.

Interesting Notes of Notable Attractions Which Come to Capital Theatre This Season.

A false statement regarding the intentions of the Independent managers in New Orleans was given considerable publicity in certain papers last week. The article declared that they gave up the Lyric Theatre in the Louisiana metropolis and surrendered the city. The fact is the Lyric Theatre is entirely inadequate for the first-class attractions of the Messrs. Shubert and they are now building a new theatre in New Orleans to be called the Shubert Theatre which will be by far the handsomest play house in that city. It will be thrown open to the public early in October. Houses added to the Independent circuit last week were the Nelson Theatre, Springfield, Mass.; the Providence Opera House, Providence, R. I., and the Grand Opera House, London, Ont.

James T. Powers will play the part of a British soldier in the Shubert's mammoth production of the English musical comedy "The Blue Moon." The role has been revised from the original to the Mr. Powers' eccentric style of humor.

Louis Harrison as well as Louise Gunning will be featured in the Shubert's beautiful presentation of the tuneful English-French musical comedy, "Veronique," which opens at the Lyric Theatre, Philadelphia, September 1. Andre Message's music is admirably suited to Miss Gunning's splendid voice.

Guy Standing's debut as a star under direction of the Messrs. Shubert will be made in a strong comedy drama entitled, "A Society Policeman." The play will be produced under the stage supervision of Henry Miller.

Margaret Anglin, previous to the opening of her new play, "The Great Divide," at the Princes Theatre, New York, on October 1, will visit southern Arizona in search of "local color" and properties for the production. One act of "The Great Divide" represents a cactus ranch, and another the "roof of the world" in the Cordillera Mountains.

"Lady Madcap," the highly successful George Edwards' musical comedy to be given by the Shuberts next month, is one of the few plays of the kind from London that needs very little re-writing to make it suit American demands. "Lady Madcap" is said to be particularly rich in humor.

Lena Ashwell will play "The Shulamite" at the Savoy Theatre, London, up to the very day she sails for America to tour in that sensational drama under management of the Messrs. Shubert. There is no doubt "The Shulamite" could remain in London all the coming season, so great has been its hit, but the American engagement will not permit.

Julia Marlowe will return from Europe within the next two weeks to begin preparations for her tour with E. H. Sothern over the Shubert circuit. She and Mr. Sothern will have the most extensive repertoire of their careers next season.

Virginia Harned is in Paris securing gowns for use in her production of "The Girl In Waiting." In this drama will be seen one of the most millinery displays of the
